weekly chart & 40wma

Short-term pressures may remain with volumes also subsiding due to seasonality. We maintain that the market is undergoing a consolidation to build considerable support above 10700. The testing grounds for this short-term retreat are placed from 10730-10850. We reiterate that further decline in volumes would bode well for levels to react spontaneously, thus short-trades should strictly be done intra-day.

Today's Strategy: Buy @10800-10842 targeting 101917/30, stop below 10760.
